

Australian Children's Television Foundation Internship Opportunity

In the second half of 2022 the ACTF is offering an internship for an emerging producer or writer/producer with a specific interest in working in the children's television area.

This internship will be for a period of up to 16 weeks.

This is a paid, full time, internship which will be completed in the ACTF's Melbourne office.

The ACTF intern will be given a thorough grounding and insight into the world of children's television; working with the ACTF teams across administration, policy, program development, production, financing, distribution, legal, social media and education.

Please be aware that the ACTF is not a Producer and this is not a production internship - you won't be on set or on a specific production. This opportunity is suitable for those wanting to produce and create children's content and acquire an understanding of development, financing, distribution and an overview of different genres of children's television production.

The ACTF internship program is aimed at those who are at an early career stage with some industry experience and for whom this opportunity to work alongside the ACTF team for 3-4 months will build on that experience and further expand their industry knowledge in areas relevant to producers.

If you are passionate about quality children's television, have some industry experience in relevant areas and think that this opportunity sounds like you, please send a one-page letter outlining why you feel you should be the next ACTF intern, along with your CV, including referees.

The ACTF is committed to building diversity and inclusion in the screen industry and warmly encourages applications from all backgrounds and perspectives. Our number one selection criteria is that you can demonstrate a genuine desire and commitment to creating, writing and/or producing content for a children's audience. You should approach the writing of your cover letter with this in mind as well as outlining your past experience and career goals.

The internship dates will be confirmed with the successful applicant but are anticipated to be August to November 2022.

This is a paid, full time position with a salary equivalent to $58,000p.a. plus superannuation.

Deadline for applications is: 17th June 2022.

Interviews will be conducted from a shortlist of applicants prior to 30th June.
