7 SADIE

My presentation sucks. I need a new concept. So, excuse me, but I have to figure out how to rid the world of all nuclear weapons before 2.30pm.

And with that, Sadie stands and moves off.

8 CAT

You guys get it, right?
(gestures to earpiece)
This thing leaked my data, I need to find out why.

9 ALEX

By giving it even more access to your life? According to every robot movie ever, this is the worst idea in the world.

10 CAT

I have to know for sure if he's good or bad. -- So far he's been helpful, if a bit rude...

11 HANC (V.O.)

Incorrect. HANC has a pleasing and factual tone.

Alex shakes her head, can't believe Cat.

12 ALEX

Sadie's right. There's a hundred K on the line - that's my priority.

Now Alex moves off, Ollie offering a weak:

13 OLLIE

See you later, yeah?

But she's gone. Ollie slumps, reading the signs as her being uninterested. Keen for distraction, he looks back to Cat:

14 CAT

Whether HANC's a danger or not, he's now officially the story.

15 HANC (V.O.)

HANC is not a narrative.

Cat rolls her eyes, which Ollie finds odd, but accepts.

16 OLLIE

So it's a morality test - is HANC good or bad. Where do we start?

Cat gives this some thought...
