Just when Cat Parkes Pérez has finally settled into life in The Lodge, a new conspiracy sends her on a desperate search for the truth. Between a federal election campaign and a highly competitive tech internship, there's no shortage of distractions ... and that's all before her mother's love life starts making headlines. Cat's journalism aspirations are about to be put to the test as she digs to uncover her very first story, all while balancing the unpredictable complications that come with being the PM's daughter.

With best friends Sadie Bonner and Ollie Yeung by her side, Cat's about to discover that the truth can be far more complicated than she ever imagined.

“In The PM's Daughter Series 2, Cat and her friends are excited to start a new year of school. They are also starting a really exciting internship at an up-and-coming tech company – ‘Alethia’. Amongst all that, Cat is also wrestling with the fact that her mother is currently running for re-election... But Cat is trying to stay focused because she has figured out what she wants to do with her life [journalism].

What Cat doesn't realise is that all that is about to come together with a brand-new mystery... Cat's very first story will help her unravel a conspiracy that could involve taking over the government itself with technology.”
